

Permission to disclose personal information to designated third parties

HELBUS sometimes receives requests from interested third parties (such as parents, guardians or sponsors) for confidential information related to our students. Typically, such requests focus on academic progress reports, attendance or invoice-related matters. Legally, HELBUS is not permitted to provide such information without the expressed consent of the student involved.

We recommend that you grant HELBUS permission to share your confidential records with those that may have a legitimate interest. In order to allow us to do so, please enter their personal details below and sign your name at the bottom of this form.
