I hereby confirm that by applying after the official application deadline, there may be consequences in terms of my studies. Such delays may include, but are not limited to the following:

- Offer of study place may be delayed, having an impact on when you can apply for Kela benefits, or student housing
- Enrolment to the University of Northampton virtual learning environment NILE may be delayed
- Your participation in the welcome week where important information about your studies are shared, may be compromised
- You may miss important classes at the beginning of term and must catch up independently
- Processing time of your application cannot be guaranteed, which may mean that it may be that you cannot be enrolled in your desired group, but will receive an offer for a later start date
- Your graduation date may be later than desired
